Off-Campus Student Services
http://ocss.tamu.edu

- AggieSearch (http://aggiesearch.tamu.edu) provides students access to apartment and other off-campus housing listings and roommate search options.
- The Off-Campus Survival Manual (OCSM) introduces students to the community and provides information related to leases, transportation, security deposits, the local BCS community and more.

Becky Gates Children’s Center
http://childrens-center.tamu.edu

- Texas A&M University opened the Children’s Center, an on-campus childcare center, at the beginning of the 1998 fall semester. It is conveniently located behind University Apartments. The Center serves up to 162 children full-time. The hours of operations are 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. The Center follows the Texas A&M University staff holiday calendar (with the exception of 5 ½ staff development days). Enrollment at the Center is open to children age 12 months to 5 years, whose parents are students, faculty or staff of Texas A&M. The Center seeks to enroll children representing diverse cultural, ethnic, socioeconomic and linguistic backgrounds. The Children’s Center is dedicated to providing quality care and an individualized, developmentally appropriate early childhood experience for the children. The staff establishes positive interaction, nurturing each child’s growth and education in a stimulating, secure and caring learning environment. Variety is vital for a child’s development. A balance of indoor and outdoor, individualized and group, quiet and active experiences are planned for each day. Individual colleges and departments are encouraged to utilize the children’s center as a place to partner their classroom learning experiences with real-world, hands-on learning in the field.
- The Center is also a demonstration site for many undergraduate and graduate students at Texas A&M, including those in education, business, marketing, horticulture, architecture, parks and recreation, and construction science. These students are placed at the Center for various observation and community outreach experiences in an
http://cte.tamu.edu

Established in 1983, the Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE) supports the University's commitment to excellence in teaching and learning. CTE offers consultation and support services to faculty, postdoctoral scholars, graduate students, and staff. Specifically, CTE offers a wide range of programs supporting the professional development in teaching of graduate students currently serving as teaching assistants within their departments, preparing for a career in higher education, and/or preparing for a career in industry requiring skills in public speaking and communication, instruction, and mentorship. Graduate students have the option to participate in a variety of program formats including workshops, learning communities, teaching academies, teaching conferences, and individual consultation. CTE works collaboratively with colleges and service organizations across campus to provide continuity of service when in support of the University's mission. Programs we provide include, but are not limited to the following: Teaching Assistant Institute (TAI); Academy for Future Faculty (AFF); College Classroom Teaching Course; and Graduate Teaching Consultant (GTC).

Graduate student resources can be found on the CTE website – http://cte.tamu.edu.

To learn more about how the CTE can be of service, contact: cte@tamu.edu.

Center for the Integration of Research, Teaching and Learning
http://cirtl.tamu.edu/

The Center for the Integration of Research, Teaching and Learning (CIRTL) is a national network universities and colleges that are focused on teaching and learning in higher education. CIRTL uses graduate education as the leverage point to develop a national STEM faculty committed to implementing and advancing effective teaching practices for diverse student audiences as part of successful professional careers. The goal of CIRTL is to improve the STEM learning of all students at every college and university, and thereby to increase the diversity in STEM fields and the STEM literacy of the nation.

Established in fall 2006, the CIRTL Network was comprised of Howard University, Michigan State University, Texas A&M University, University of Colorado at Boulder, University of Wisconsin-Madison, and Vanderbilt University. After substantial expansions in 2011 and 2016, the Network now includes 43 research universities across the nation. The diversity of these institutions - private/public; large/moderate size; majority-/ minority-serving; geographic location is by design aligned with CIRTL's mission.

As a local member of the CIRTL network, CIRTL@TAMU works collaboratively with the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies, the Center for Teaching Excellence, and the Academic Colleges. Through collaboration, the CIRTL@TAMU offers a range of local and national teaching and learning opportunities for graduate students in STEM and Non-STEM fields at Texas A&M University. These opportunities help students learn and apply the principles of teaching as research in a supportive context of one or more local learning communities that are infused with the pillars of CIRTL: Learning-through-Diversity, Learning Community, and Teaching as Research. Students that engage with the network can earn CIRTL certification at the Associate, Practitioner, and/or Scholar levels.

More information about CIRTL@TAMU and opportunities to get involved can be found on the on the following website: http://cirtl.tamu.edu/

Consensual Language, Education, Awareness and Relationships (CLEAR)

CLEAR is dedicated to reducing violence in Aggieland by educating students, faculty, and staff about power-based interpersonal violence and how Aggies can work to prevent it. CLEAR advises one student organization, Student Anti-Violence Educators (SAVE).

We offer presentations on a variety of topics, including the following:

- Sexual violence
- Sexual harassment
- Domestic/dating violence
- Stalking
- Healthy/respectful intimate relationships
- Consent

To request a presentation on any of these topics, visit our website at https://studentlife.tamu.edu/clear or email CLEAR at clear@studentlife.tamu.edu

GRAD Aggies
http://grad-aggies.tamu.edu

Graduate Resources and Development for Aggies (G.R.A.D. Aggies) is a collaborative effort of seven university-level academic support units providing workshops, seminars, training events, and online resources open to all graduate and professional students. Facilitated by the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies, G.R.A.D. Aggies programming falls under four broad competency areas: academic development, leadership and communication development, instruction and assessment, and career development. These workshops are designed to provide those “soft skills” not addressed directly in discipline-based coursework that employers cite as essential to applicants’ competitiveness.

The G.R.A.D. Aggies certificate program, launched in the Fall of 2015, offers students the opportunity to spotlight their participation in professional development events and enhance their CV or resume. This program promotes deeper engagement for students who attend G.R.A.D. Aggies Events. The certificate is offered at three levels: Basic, Intermediate and Advanced, all at no cost to the student. All G.R.A.D. Aggies events are listed on the GRAD Aggies Calendar and offer Professional Development Units (PDUs) that accumulate to reach the desired certificate level. Achieving certificate requirements for the Basic level requires attending a minimum of 6 PDU credits of face-to-face events, completing the corresponding short assignment for each event within one month of attendance, and submitting a final program reflection. Intermediate and Advanced Certificates require an increased number of PDUs for completion, as well as other activities. Student engagement is tracked through eCampus.

A weekly eNewsletter is sent to all graduate and professional students to alert them to on-going professional development activities associated with G.R.A.D. Aggies. Students can also subscribe to the G.R.A.D. Aggies calendar to have events auto populate to their smart phone or device. OGAPS also facilitates a Professional Development Portal that is an online repository of all professional development opportunities available at Texas A&M at the department, college, or university level to enable quick searching of opportunities across campus (see http://ogaps.tamu.edu/profdev-portal).

Graduate and Professional Student Council
http://www.gpsctamu.org

The Graduate and Professional Student Council (GPSC) serves as the graduate and professional student government of Texas A&M University. GPSC works in cooperation with the Texas A&M University administration, faculty, and student leaders to advocate for graduate and professional students and to ensure their needs are understood and considered when making campus policies concerning academic excellence, tuition and fees, and research. GPSC aims to share and discuss information important to Texas A&M University graduate and professional students and serves as an advocate for their interests within the University community. Specific goals of the GPSC include: representing all graduate and professional students by identifying and advocating for interests on graduate issues; recognition as representing a unique population within the University community; and enhancing the graduate and professional experience through social and service opportunities. Each academic department with graduate and professional programs is eligible to send one voting delegate to the biweekly meetings and all graduate and professional students are invited to attend. Officer elections are held in the spring. GPSC also works closely with the Student Government Association to ensure graduate and professional student issues are represented and addressed through student legislation and on University committees. Additional information is available on the GPSC website at http://www.gpsctamu.org.

Health Promotion
http://studentlife.tamu.edu/hp

• Provide educational health information and consultation
International Student Services provides the following support services to international students (defined as students who are not U.S. citizens or lawful permanent residents):

- Pre-arrival information
- Certificates of Eligibility (Forms I-20 and DS-2019)
- On-line Orientation and International Student Conference
- Represent the University with the Department of Homeland Security, Department of State and the Student Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS)
- Assist students with federal immigration regulation compliance
- Advising
- Liaison for students, university and community
- International student employment information
- Administration of some international student scholarships and loans
- Coordinate with the Texas A&M University System Student Health Insurance Plan provider and students
- Community involvement activities

International Student Services also provides these additional services to sponsored students:

- Liaison between academic departments, students and sponsors
- Acts as admission liaison for sponsored students and sponsors
- Assist with contractual agreements between the students and sponsors
- Liaison for sponsors and students regarding third party billing
- Assistance with housing, specialized letters, and some transportation

Memorial Student Center (MSC)

http://msc.tamu.edu/

- Programming at the MSC, Texas A&M’s student union, enriches the living and learning experience in Aggieland. We produce hundreds of programs each year in the arts, cultural and educational awareness and exploration, leadership development, and service projects on campus and in the community. Our programs include the OPAS performing arts series, art exhibitions in the MSC Reynolds Gallery, concerts, weekly films, lectures and speakers discussing current events and national affairs, the MLK Breakfast, Salsa Dance Night, and MSC Open House. The MSC also promotes international awareness through on-campus programs and internships abroad.
- MSC programs also offer students excellent academic development opportunities. The MSC Jordan Institute for International Awareness offers students the chance to conduct international research and serve as interns for international corporations. The Student Conference on National Affairs offers students a challenging and informative conference focused on professional development in the area of national policy, and the Student Conference on Latino Affairs features sessions that tie together personal and professional development. In addition, MSC programming committee members learn and practice leadership and professional skills through the experience of managing their own organizations and producing programs for the campus community.
- The MSC Box Office provides students and organizations with convenient and affordable ticketing, cash handling, and sales services. The Box Office makes selling easier by eliminating the worry and risk of cash handling by providing online sales and by providing extensive reporting capabilities that take the hassle out of accounting tracking sales and cash flow.

Department of Multicultural Services

http://dms.tamu.edu/

The Department of Multicultural Services (DMS) contributes to steady progress toward institutional diversity goals of greater inclusion and academic excellence by positively impacting the campus climate.

The department has a mission to provide multiple educational and developmental services for underrepresented populations and diversity education programs that foster inclusive learning environments for all students. DMS supports, advocates for and challenges students as they transition and persist at Texas A&M, as well as provides opportunities for students to examine and communicate ways to contribute to an inclusive and respectful campus community, develop cultural knowledge and competence and build cross-cultural communication skills.

DMS is home to a number of student organizations and opportunities for intentional interaction and engagement which support the academic, social, cultural, and personal development of students. Our department is also home to a free tutorial service providing one-on-one tutoring in specific lower-level courses and coordinates a NASPA Undergraduate Fellows Program initiative for the Division of Student Affairs. The department strives to maintain a welcoming and inclusive environment for all students.

Office of Graduate and Professional Studies Workshop Series

http://ogaps.tamu.edu/

The Office of Graduate and Professional Studies provides workshops each fall and spring semester to provide graduate and professional students support as they progress through their programs to graduation. The workshops are available to all graduate and professional students, Masters and Doctoral, and address services offered by the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies (e.g., thesis and dissertation services); they also cover a variety of professional development topics, such as Financial Management, Intellectual Property (data ownership), Building a Mentoring Partnership, and Multiple Career Paths. Many of these are included under the G.R.A.D. Aggies program. Workshops are added as students request new information and can be provided to individual student organizations upon request. OGAPS also facilitates a Professional Development Portal that is an online repository of all professional development opportunities available at Texas A&M at the department, college, or university level to enable quick searching of opportunities.
Recreational Sports
http://recsports.tamu.edu

- Texas A&M students who pay the mandatory Rec Sports fee automatically become Rec Sports members for that semester. All you need is your student ID to utilize the Student Recreation Center (Rec Center) and other Rec Sports facilities. Persons with disabilities are invited to contact Member Services to inquire about accommodations.
- Drop-in recreation encompasses the use of the Rec Center’s handball/racquetball courts; indoor soccer, basketball, volleyball and badminton courts; walking/jogging track; bouldering wall; indoor rock climbing facility; outdoor basketball and sand volleyball courts; extensive strength and conditioning areas; dance/activity rooms; and natatorium that features indoor pools, a diving well, and an outdoor free-form and lap pool. Also available to students are the Penberthy Rec Sports Complex and the tennis center. Facilities may be used on a drop-in basis except when reserved for classes or university functions. Guest passes are available for visitors.
- Rec Sports also offers aquatics classes, group exercise classes, endurance programs and boot camps, specialty classes, intramural sports, the Texas A&M Sport Clubs program, personal training services, massage therapy, the Outdoor Adventures program, CPR certification courses, and the Walk of Champions brick campaign.

Student Activities
http://studentactivities.tamu.edu/

- Student Activities is the premier resource hub for the many leadership and involvement opportunities on campus. At Texas A&M, we care about helping Aggies develop skills both in and out of the classroom that will prepare them for life beyond Aggieland. Whatever it is that you love, Student Activities is here to help you practice your passion through involvement in one of our 1000+ student organizations. The perks of getting involved range from reaching your leadership potential to networking with administrators and potential employers to forming lasting friendships.
- At Texas A&M, Aggies are held to a high standard of leadership and selfless service. To promote and develop these qualities, our Leadership and Service Center offers a number of leadership programs to help you reach your leadership potential, and it also houses several service-based organizations such as The Big Event and Aggie Replant. We also provide a way for Aggies to connect and volunteer with local community agencies through our AggieServe database (http://aggieserve.tamu.edu).

Transportation Services

- TransIt - The University operates an on- and off-campus transit system that can be used by anyone on campus, fare-free. The off-campus transit system serves most of the major apartment complexes and housing areas in Bryan/College Station, as well as the Blinn College Campus. All transit services are included in student registration fees and do not require a bus pass, however, passengers are required to present their Texas A&M, Blinn, or Brazos Transit District ID when boarding at off-campus stops. In addition, students may ride The District (http://btd.org) buses fare-free by showing their IDs upon entering the bus. For The District route information visit http://btd.org. For updates about transit routes, subscribe to the RSS feed (http://transport.tamu.edu/rss) or follow @aggiespiritbus (http://twitter.com/aggiespiritbus) on Twitter. For transit information, including maps and leave times, visit http://m.tamu.edu.

- Parking - Those who choose to bring a vehicle to campus are required to purchase a permit or pay to park in designated visitor areas (see also Optional Campus Services (http://catalog.tamu.edu/graduate/tuition-fees-financial-information OPTIONAL-CAMPUS-SERVICES)). Parking is at a premium on Texas A&M’s campus; MOST customers are not assigned to their first choice for parking. Often the available parking may not be immediately adjacent to your building or facility. Students may register for a permit or sign up for wait lists at http://transport.tamu.edu/account. To get the best parking available, register online by the July 5 priority deadline. For updates about parking, traffic, and construction, subscribe to the RSS feed (http://transport.tamu.edu/rss) or follow @aggieparking (http://twitter.com/aggieparking) on Twitter. For more information about parking permits or to view the Parking Rules and Regulations, visit Transportation Services online at http://transport.tamu.edu/parkingreg.

- Bicycles - Bicycles are a great way to get to, from, and around campus. Bike services include bike registration, the new bike share program, bike lease program, borrow-a-bike, summer bike storage, and maintenance stations. For more information visit http://transport.tamu.edu/bicycles.

- Alternatives - Don’t have a car? There are plenty of alternatives including carshare, rideshare, and break/weekend shuttles to major Texas cities. For more Alternative Transportation options visit http://transport.tamu.edu/alternative.

University Center and Special Events (UCEN)
http://ucenter.tamu.edu/

- University Center and Special Events features a variety of special event and meeting spaces, as well as theatrical production spaces. Our venues are ideal for student, academic, administrative, corporate, social, non-profit and arts-related events. Our spaces include: the Memorial Student Center, Rudder Theatre Complex, J. Earl Rudder Tower, Koldus Building, All Faiths Chapel, designated outdoor spaces and the University Center Guest Suites. We also provide services in any approved facility of your choosing.

- When it comes to planning events on campus, visit the University Center and Special Events office on the 2nd floor of Rudder Tower. Our staff can assist you with reservations in any of the UCEN facilities as well as help in all aspects of planning meetings, socials or conferences. The highly skilled staff arranges event set ups; provides and operates audio/visual equipment, electricity, lighting and event staging; and assists with many of the other support details that are essential to a successful event.
