

AFRICANA STUDIES - CERTIFICATE

This interdisciplinary certificate is offered by the Africana Studies program in the College of Arts and Sciences. It offers interested masters or doctoral students an opportunity to develop an interdisciplinary graduate concentration in Africana Studies while they are also earning a degree in a disciplinary field. In addition to gaining knowledge of peoples and of issues with particular significance to the Africana world, students pursuing this certificate will also benefit from the interdisciplinary training that is the hallmark of Africana Studies. They will be exposed to the scholarship, methods, and theories of the multiple disciplines that contribute to the critical analysis and understanding of the Africana world. Awarding of the Africana Studies Certificate requires that the certificate candidate complete of Africana Studies approved coursework.

Program Requirements

Code	Title	Semester Credit Hours
AFST 601	Methods of Inquiry Into Africana Studies	3
Humanities elective		3
Social and behavioral sciences elective		3
Approved free elective		3
Total Semester Credit Hours		12