All students are required to take two courses with the writing attribute, also known as "W-courses", from the department. Substitutions with W-courses from other departments are not allowed. Please see the academic advisor for the most current list of Anthropology W-courses.

Minor Requirements

Anthropology majors have the option of selecting a minor field of study from departments or divisions within or outside the College of Arts and Sciences or in a particular area of interest (as with interdisciplinary minors or career opportunity minors). Minors typically consist of 15-18 hours or coursework, at least 6 of which must be at the upper-division level. A minor should be declared before the student has completed 90 credit hours.

College and University Requirements

Other courses may qualify for this category. Students should consult the approved lists of courses available through the academic advisor in the Department of Anthropology or in the Undergraduate Student Services Office in the College of Arts and Sciences. The following list incorporates University Core Curriculum requirements. No course can be counted in more than one category, with the exception of courses used for the international and cultural diversity (<http://catalog.tamu.edu/undergraduate/general-information/degree-information/international-cultural-diversity-requirements/>) or the cultural discourse (<http://catalog.tamu.edu/undergraduate/general-information/degree-information/cultural-discourse-requirements/>) requirement.
