School of Public Health (MPH, MHA, PhD and DrPH)

Application Fee

• Applications are accepted through Schools of Public Health Application Service (SOPHAS) and Healthcare Administration, Management & Policy Centralized Application Service (HAMPCAS). Fees are established by the application service agencies.

Previous Degree

• MPH/MHA/PhD - Must hold baccalaureate degree or higher from a regionally accredited college or university (degrees from institutions outside the US are evaluated for equivalency to US degree)
• DrPH - Must hold master’s degree or higher from a regionally accredited college or university (degrees from institutions outside the US are evaluated for equivalency to US degree)

Minimum Cumulative GPA

- Epidemiology – 3.0
- Biostatistics – 3.0
- Health Promotion & Community Health Sciences – 2.75

Admission Test

Official scores required for the GRE or on other national tests approved by the graduate program

International Requirements

• All international applicants must submit their international academic credentials to World Education Services (WES) for a course by course evaluation and US equivalency determination
• All international applicants must show English language proficiency by meeting one of the following requirements below:
  # Graduate Record Examination (GRE) verbal score of 153 or higher
  # International English Language Testing System (IELTS) band score of 7.0 or higher
  # The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) of 95 on internet based examination

Other Requirements

• Three Letters of Recommendation
• Statement of Purpose
• Curriculum Vita or Resume
• Official Transcripts
• Each department and/or program may have additional requirements. Please consult the departmental homepages for information.