

JAMES BENJAMIN DEPARTMENT OF ACCOUNTING

Department Head: S. McGuire

PhD Advisor: M. Ege

MS Advisor (Professional Program in Accounting and Traditional Program): C. Kyllonen

MS Advisor (Flex Online Program): M. Diaz

The James Benjamin Department of Accounting, an AACSB-Accredited (Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business) Accounting program, offers graduate studies leading to Master of Science (MS) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) degrees. The department also offers graduate coursework supporting other Mays Business School's Master's-level degrees, such as Master of Business Administration (MBA), MS in Finance, etc.

The department offers a combination program that students enter in the junior year of the Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) program. Graduates of the Professional Program in Accounting (PPA) receive a BBA degree and a MS degree in a business discipline or a MFM (Master in Financial Management). The department also offers a traditional MS in Accounting degree. Both PPA and the traditional MS in Accounting program provides the necessary coursework for students who wish to enter public accounting or corporate accounting/finance fields. PPA and traditional MS in Accounting students must be able to complete coursework in College Station, Texas.

The department also offers a Flex Online Master of Science in Accounting degree in a fully online format. This program is designed for working professionals looking to advance a current accounting career or to move into accounting from another field. For additional information, contact the director of the Flex Online Accounting Program in the James Benjamin Department of Accounting.

Questions related to eligibility requirements to take the CPA examination or for CPA licensure in Texas should be directed to the Texas State Board of Public Accountancy (or the licensing authority in other jurisdictions).

The PhD program is designed to prepare students for careers in teaching and research. Additional information, including specific departmental requirements, may be obtained by contacting the PhD Advisor in the James Benjamin Department of Accounting. PhD students must be able to complete coursework in College Station, Texas.
