

ORAL AND MAXILLOFACIAL RADIOLOGY - CERTIFICATE

Participants in this program gain experience in oral and maxillofacial radiologic practice; acquire background information in radiation physics, biology, and protection; and enhance their teaching and research skills.

Program Requirements

Code	Title	Semester Credit Hours
OBIO 610	Responsible Conduct in Biomedical Research	1.0
OBIO 611	Research Design and Methodology	2.0
OBIO 621	Applied Biostatistics	2.0
OBIO 631	Advanced Craniofacial Development and Craniofacial Anomalies	1.0
OBIO 660	Teaching Skills for Health Professions Educators	1.0
OBIO 672	Head and Neck Anatomy	1.5
OMFP 619	Advanced Oral Pathology	2.0
OMFR 600	Radiation Physics and Biology for Radiology Residents I	0.0
OMFR 601	Radiation Physics and Biology for Radiology Residents II	0.0
OMFR 604	Case Conference I	0.0
OMFR 605	Case Conference II	0.0
OMFR 606	Case Conference III	0.0
OMFR 607	Case Conference IV	0.0
OMFR 608	Case Conference V	0.0
OMFR 609	Advanced Radiology Interpretation in Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology	2.0
OMFR 610	Advanced Imaging Technology in Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology	1.0
OMFR 611	Advanced Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology	1.0
OMFR 612	Clinical Teaching I	0.0
OMFR 613	Clinical Teaching II	0.0
OMFR 614	Clinical Teaching III	0.0
OMFR 615	Clinical Teaching IV	0.0

Total Semester Credit Hours		48

Must complete 24 months of residency, total credit hours specified, any non-credit courses specified, and be approved by the Promotions Committee for this certificate to be awarded. In addition to didactic and seminar courses, the student will participate in the Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology clinical service at the college, as well as the Medical Radiology Clinical Service at Baylor University Medical Center at Dallas.

In accordance with Student Rule 10.4.1, grades of S or U may be assigned in certain officially designated certificate courses.
