Additional Requirements

- Residence (p. 1)
- Time Limit (p. 1)
- Foreign Languages (p. 1)
- Internship or Practicum (p. 1)
- Application for Degree (p. 1)

Residence

A student must complete 12 hours in resident study at Texas A&M University to satisfy the residence requirement for the Master of National Security and Intelligence.

Students who are employed full-time while completing their degree may fulfill total residence requirements by completion of less-than-full time course loads each semester.

See Residence Requirements (<http://catalog.tamu.edu/graduate/academic-expectations-general-degree-requirements/#degree requirementstext>).

Time Limit

All degree requirements must be completed within a period of seven consecutive years for the degree to be granted. A course will be considered valid until seven years after the end of the semester in which it is taken. Graduate credit for coursework that is more than seven calendar years old at the time of graduation may not be used to satisfy degree requirements.

Foreign Languages

A foreign language background is not required for admission into the program. To graduate, however, a student must successfully pass a foreign language exam administered in accordance with the ratings of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages. For this test the student must demonstrate a minimal proficiency in speaking and comprehension at the established rating of "intermediate low."
