

BUSINESS LAW AND COMPLIANCE - CERTIFICATE

The certificate in Business Law and Compliance is designed for business professionals (including managerial positions involving contracting and negotiation, legal compliance, human resources, and risk assessment and mitigation) to deliver specialized legal training for compliance and an in-depth understanding of the changing complex legal aspects of business operations.

This graduate-level certificate in Business Law and Compliance will prepare new and experienced business professionals to effectively address complex legal and policy challenges in the industry. Specifically, participants will be exposed to (i) important Federal and state laws, regulations and policies impacting business operations, and (ii) advances in theory and practice, as well as applications of law, regulation and policies through case studies through a module-based structure.

Individuals who complete the program will be able to synthesize scenarios, practice, and legal regulation in the business operations, providing analysis or judgments for consideration to organizational leadership with a nuanced perspective.

The certificate in Business Law and Compliance provides an industry-responsive curriculum with a focus on business law as it applies to policies, business, and economic factors. Courses are offered by asynchronous distance learning to provide a flexible schedule for working professionals. Interactive coursework includes case study assignments and regular interaction with classmates through zoom meetings, videos, audio casts, chat rooms, discussion boards, and group breakout sessions.

This program is approved for delivery via asynchronous distance education technology.
