

HEALTH LAW, POLICY AND MANAGEMENT - CERTIFICATE

The certificate in Health Law, Policy and Management is designed for healthcare professionals (including nurses, physicians, hospital administrators and leaders) to deliver specialized legal training to position them to respond to the challenges and opportunities the industry may pose for providers, suppliers, and industry partners.

This graduate-level certificate in Health Law, Policy and Management will prepare new and experienced healthcare professionals to effectively address complex legal and policy challenges in the healthcare sector. Specifically, participants will be exposed to (i) important Federal and state laws, regulations and policies in the healthcare sector, and (ii) advances in theory and practice, as well as applications of law, regulation and policies through case studies through a module-based structure.

Individuals who complete the program will be able to synthesize scenarios, practice, and legal regulation in the healthcare sector, providing analysis or judgments for consideration to organizational leadership with a nuanced perspective.

The certificate in Health Law, Policy and Management provides an industry-responsive curriculum with a focus on healthcare law as it applies to policies, business, and economic factors. Courses are offered by asynchronous distance learning to provide a flexible schedule for working professionals. Interactive coursework includes case study assignments and regular interaction with classmates through zoom meetings, videos, audio casts, chat rooms, discussion boards, and group breakout sessions.

This program is approved for delivery via asynchronous distance education technology.
