

SEFB - SPECIAL ED. FIELD BASED

---

SEFB 618 Applied Behavior Management in the Classroom

Credits 3. 3 Lecture Hours. Field-based course related to effective management of challenging behavior problems in the classroom using proactive classroom strategies, effective instruction and planned behavior interventions; discussion and applications of methods for observing, assessing and analyzing challenging behaviors. Prerequisite: Graduate classification.

SEFB 630 Practicum in Applied Behavior Analysis

Credits 3. 9 Other Hours. University-supervised experience related to specializations in special education and behavior analysis. May be taken eight times for credit. Prerequisites: Graduate classification; SEFB 618; approval of department head.

SEFB 631 Intensive Practicum in Applied Behavior Analysis

Credits 3. 9 Other Hours. University-supervised intensive experience related to specializations in special education and behavior analysis. May be taken eight times for credit. Prerequisites: Graduate classification; SEFB 618; approval of department head.