SEFB - SPECIAL ED. FIELD BASED

SEFB 618 Applied Behavior Management in the Classroom
Credits 3.3 Lecture Hours.
Field-based course related to effective management of challenging behavior problems in the classroom using proactive classroom strategies, effective instruction and planned behavior interventions; discussion and applications of methods for observing, assessing and analyzing challenging behaviors.
Prerequisite: Graduate classification.

SEFB 630 Practicum in Applied Behavior Analysis
Credits 3.9 Other Hours.
University-supervised experience related to specializations in special education and behavior analysis. May be taken eight times for credit.
Prerequisites: Graduate classification; SEFB 618; approval of department head.

SEFB 631 Intensive Practicum in Applied Behavior Analysis
Credits 3.9 Other Hours.
University-supervised intensive experience related to specializations in special education and behavior analysis. May be taken eight times for credit.
Prerequisites: Graduate classification; SEFB 618; approval of department head.