Academic integrity violations are taken seriously, and are adjudicated by the Academic Services Office (ASO). ASO is responsible for educating the campus community regarding the Aggie Honor Code, responding to academic violation reports, and facilitating remediation efforts for students found to be in violation of the Aggie Honor Code. The website, <https://www.qatar.tamu.edu/students/academic-services/aggie-honor-system> (<https://www.qatar.tamu.edu/students/academic-services/aggie-honor-system/>), defines the types of infractions and the possible consequences. Students are urged to review this information.

In addition to adherence to the honor code, a student (graduate students in particular) who is completing a thesis, record of study, dissertation, and publication may fall under the additional federal requirements promulgated by the Office of Research Integrity (Scientific Misconduct Regulations – 42 CFR part 50), as well as Texas A&M System Regulations and Texas A&M University Rules (Texas A&M System Regulations – Ethics in Research and Scholarship – 15.99.03, and Texas A&M University rules and standard administrative procedures – Responsible Conduct in Research and Scholarship – 15.99.03.M1, 15.99.03.M1.01-06).
