Aggie Honor Code

Integrity is a fundamental core value of Texas A&M University. Academic integrity requires a commitment by all faculty, students, and administrators to:

• Remain constantly focused on the quality of the academic programs;
• Achieve and maintain academic excellence in all courses and programs to assure the value of Texas A&M University degrees;
• Demand high academic standards from all members of the Aggie community.

All Texas A&M University students, graduate and undergraduate, part-time or full-time, in residence or in distance education, are expected to follow the guiding rule of the Aggie Honor Code:

"An Aggie does not lie, cheat, or steal or tolerate those who do."

Upon accepting admission to Texas A&M University, a student immediately assumes a commitment to uphold the Honor Code, to accept responsibility for learning, and to follow the philosophy and rules of the Honor System. A student will be required to state his/her commitment on examinations, research papers, and other academic work. Ignorance of the rules does not exclude any member of the Texas A&M community from the requirements or the processes of the Honor System.

The Honor System Office is charged with promotion of the honor code and administration of academic misconduct cases. The Honor Council, comprised of students and faculty from colleges and offices across the University, will investigate all such infractions of the honor code and recommend appropriate sanctions. The website, http://aggiehonor.tamu.edu, defines the types of infractions and the possible consequences. Students are urged to review this information.

In addition to adherence to the Honor Code, a student (graduate students in particular) who is completing a thesis, record of study, dissertation, and publication may fall under the additional federal regulations — Ethics in Research, Scholarship and Creative Work — System Regulations and Texas A&M University Rules (42 CFR part 50), as well as Texas A&M System Regulations and Texas A&M University Rules (Ethics in Research, Scholarship and Creative Work — 15.99.03 (https://www.tamus.edu/legal/policy/policy-and-regulation-library/), and Texas A&M University rules and standard administrative procedures — Responsible Conduct in Research and Scholarship — 15.99.03.M1, 15.99.03. M1.01-06 (http://rules-saps.tamu.edu/TAMURulesAndSAPs.aspx#15)).

First Professional Academic Appeals Panel and Process

The First Professional Appeals Panel (FPAP) will hear appeals regarding allegations of due process violations only, after all administrative processes related to (a) suspensions, dismissals, or blocks for scholastic deficiency in a student’s academic program; and (b) appeals of disputes over final course grades that have been exhausted in first professional programs (JD, MD, DDS, DVM, PharmD).

Texas A&M University Student Rules Part III, Section 62 (http://student-rules.tamu.edu/rule62/) describe the First Professional Appeals Panel Process in detail. Please carefully review Section 62 (http://student-rules.tamu.edu/rule62/) before pursuing a grievance. First professional students are also strongly encouraged to seek clarification and advice regarding appropriate grievance procedures. The Graduate (http://ogaps.tamu.edu/New-Current-Students/Ombudsperson/) Ombuds Officer represents a valuable resource for questions regarding grievances and appeals. The ombuds officer advocates for the processes of graduate education and provides equal, open access to all parties: students, faculty, staff, and administrators.

Instructions for Securing a Hearing Before the First Professional Appeals Panel

To secure a hearing with the First Professional Appeals Panel, please follow these procedures:

Complete the Form to Request a Hearing (http://ogaps.tamu.edu/OGAPS/media/media-library/documents/Forms/OGAPS-FPAP-Form-to-Request-a-Hearing.pdf), indicating your intention to appeal to the First Professional Appeals Panel. This form must be completed and returned to the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies within ten (10) university business days after receiving the dean’s (or designee’s) letter from their Professional School notifying them of the outcome of their hearing in the Professional School in which they are enrolled.
Please direct any questions regarding graduate appeals to the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies (http://ogaps.tamu.edu/About/).

Graduate Academic Appeals Panel and Process
Revised 2016

The Graduate Academic Appeals Panel is governed by the most current version of Texas A&M University Student Rule 59. Rule 59 can be found on the web at http://student-rules.tamu.edu/rule59 (http://student-rules.tamu.edu/rule59/).

The Graduate Academic Appeals Panel will hear appeals that involve disciplinary actions stemming from unauthorized absences or final grades, the outcome of evaluation of performance on examinations, or decisions about separation (e.g., probation, suspension, dismissal, or termination) by the department, intercollegiate faculty, or the graduate advisory committee. Appeals will be heard when the student alleges that an arbitrary, capricious or prejudiced evaluation occurred. Appeals regarding requirements of departments, intercollegiate faculty, or the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies will not be heard.

The decision to request action by the Graduate Academic Appeals Panel means that:

1. the student has appealed to the department head or chair of the interdisciplinary degree program and then the dean of the college administering the student’s degree, and
2. the actions recommended at each level are unsatisfactory to the student or the examining committee.

The student and/or the examining committee, through its chair, may file an appeal to the Graduate Academic Appeals Panel.

Graduate or professional students who believe that decisions about unauthorized absences or final grades, the outcome of evaluation of performance on examinations, or decisions about separation (e.g., probation, suspension, dismissal, or termination) from a Department, Interdisciplinary Degree Program, and/or College for scholastic deficiency were made on an arbitrary, capricious, or prejudicial basis may appeal such decisions through the appeals process specified in the Texas A&M University Rules (59. Graduate Academic Appeals Panel). In such appeals the burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate that the decisions in question were arbitrary, capricious, or prejudiced.

For additional information see the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies webpage on Student Grievances and Appeals Procedures (http://ogaps.tamu.edu/New-Current-Students/Student-Grievances-and-Appeals-Procedures/).

Student Grievances and Appeals Procedures

Specific procedures at Texas A&M University allow graduate students to pursue a grievance for any of the problems, issues, or concerns listed in the table below. First Professional students can pursue disputes over due process. BEFORE initiating a grievance, students are strongly encouraged to seek clarification and advice regarding appropriate procedures. The campus Graduate Ombuds Officer represents a valuable resource for questions regarding grievances and appeals. The Ombuds Officer advocates for the processes of graduate and professional education and provides equal, open access to all parties: students, faculty, staff, and administrators.

University Student Rules

Each student enrolled at Texas A&M University is responsible for being fully acquainted with and complying with the Texas A&M University Student Rules. Specific rules, information and procedures may be found in publications pertaining to each particular service or department. Graduate students are encouraged to reference the website at http://student-rules.tamu.edu (http://student-rules.tamu.edu/) for current published rules and regulations.

For information concerning federal and state policies, please reference the appendices (http://catalog.tamu.edu/graduate/appendices/) in this catalog.
