

SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

Academic Advising

Academic advising is an interactive partnership between a student and an academic advisor. Through teaching and learning experiences, the student sets goals, acquires information and services to make decisions consistent with interests, goals, abilities and degree requirements.

Academic advising at Texas A&M University is an important component of student learning and degree completion, contributing to the academic success of all students through:

- Supporting student achievement of the University Learning Outcomes and commitment to lifelong learning
- Being responsible to and respectful of the individual student
- Encouraging commitment to lifelong learning by directing students toward opportunities to interpret, reflect upon, and apply their classroom experiences in ways relevant to their careers and their lives
- Interpreting and conveying Texas A&M University's mission to students
- Supporting the educational policies, procedures and values of the department, college and university; likewise, academic advising relies on the support and resources of the university, college and department
- Involving other university programs, services and individuals, when appropriate in the advising process
- Being responsible for professional academic advising, training, development and practices to ensure knowledge and skills stay relevant.

Department of Multicultural Services

<http://dms.tamu.edu/>

The Department of Multicultural Services (DMS) fosters meaningful student connections to campus through active, intentional, and ongoing engagement programming. The department has a mission to provide multiple developmental experiences to cultivate transition through meaningful social engagement, foster a culture where students can thrive, and develop students' capacities to work productively and collaboratively with others in preparation for an increasingly complex world. DMS connects students to and engages students while on campus with the intent to enhance their overall educational experience.

Located in the Memorial Student Center (MSC), DMS helps meet student connection, transition, collaborative teamwork, and career preparedness needs which all work together to aid in student retention, persistence, graduation, and successful transition into their professional roles. The department maintains a welcoming and engaging environment for all students.

Department of Residence Life

<http://reslife.tamu.edu/>

- Responsible for the operation of on-campus residence halls and University Apartments (White Creek and Gardens Apartments). Summer occupancy of on-campus residence halls is open to undergraduate and graduate students.

- Post-graduation employment support

Math Learning Center

The Math Learning Center (mlc.tamu.edu (<http://mlc.tamu.edu/>)) fosters the academic success of all Aggies by supporting the high-enrollment courses with significant mathematics, statistics, and quantitative reasoning content. Our high quality services, offered virtually and in-person, include:

- Drop-in peer-led tutoring Help Sessions in multiple locations on campus.
- Active-learning sessions for high enrollment courses.
- Workshops on a variety of topics taught throughout each semester.

- Week-in-Review sessions for large enrollment courses led by course instructors.
- Virtual Math Learning Center (vmlc.tamu.edu (<http://vmlc.tamu.edu>)) for self-paced study through handouts, guided practice problems, and video library.

Undergraduate Studies' units have modified services available to students enrolled via distance education, at branch campuses, or at other instructional locations.

Military Education Benefits (Scholarships & Financial Aid)

<https://aggie.tamu.edu>

- The Aggie One Stop assists eligible students and their dependents in securing federal and state veteran/military education benefits and other funding including scholarships and financial aid.

MSC Programs

<http://mscprograms.tamu.edu>

- MSC Programs engages students in purposefully designed campus programs and service opportunities that prepare them to be global leaders. To this end, we are home to 17 recognized student organizations that enrich the Aggie experience through academic, entertainment, arts, educational, and cultural programs.
- Our programs provide professional, personal, and practical engagement, supporting experiential learning and skill development in budgeting, communication, fund development, team development, program planning, logistics, meeting facilitation, public speaking, and technical skills.
- We offer a variety of interests, including student-curated art exhibitions, weekly concerts, service events, free film screenings, and world-renowned speakers discussing current events. Additionally, we host immersive travel experiences, former student engagement opportunities, and the MSC Jordan Institute for International Awareness.
- Texas A&M's Box Office in Rudder Tower provides ticketing services for student organizations, campus, and community events.

Ombuds Services

The Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Affairs provides Undergraduate Ombuds services to assist students, faculty, staff, and administrators with resolving academic conflicts on an informal and confidential basis. The Ombuds is equally open and accessible to all parties—students, faculty, staff, and administrators—in disputes that may arise when there are differing expectations or conflicting policies regarding academic issues. For more information, please visit <https://us.tamu.edu/ombuds> (<https://us.tamu.edu/ombuds/>). (<http://us.tamu.edu/Students/Undergraduate-Ombuds/>)

What does the Ombuds do?

- Assists members of the university community in solving problems and conflict.
- Serves as a neutral listener, resource, advisor, intermediary, and mediator.
- Considers all sides of a question impartially and objectively.
- Explains established policies and procedures of Texas A&M University.

- Helps visitors develop options for addressing concerns.
- Facilitates communication between students and others involved in an issue.

When would an undergraduate student need an Ombuds?

- There is an issue or a concern that cannot be resolved by the parties involved, or that one or all parties would prefer not to address through formal channels.
- There is a matter that is preferred for handling as “off the record,” or a need for an informal consultation.
- There is a problem and one or more parties are unsure of whom to speak with or what options are available to address it.
- One or more parties feel that a university policy, procedure, or regulation has been applied unfairly, or is itself unfair or ambiguous.
- There is a problem that requires an outside party to negotiate a solution or facilitate your communication with others.

What kinds of concerns could be brought to the Ombuds?

- The Ombuds can assist with any concern, but some of the issues brought to the office typically involve the following:
- Academic-related issues and appeals.
- Concerns about procedural fairness or due process.
- Questions about religious holy days.
- Misunderstandings between students, advisors, professors, or others.
- Communication breakdowns with students, advisors, professors, or others.
- Disagreements with or misunderstandings of university policies or procedures.
- Concerns over retaliation.

Undergraduate Studies' units have modified services available to students enrolled via distance education, at branch campuses, or at other instructional locations.

Pregnant and Parenting Student Services

<https://studentlife.tamu.edu/>

Resources for Pregnant and Parenting Students

- Student Rights and Campus Resources: #A list of frequently asked questions regarding the rights of pregnant and parenting students and some of the on-campus resources available to students.
- Lactation Rooms on Campus: Student Life maintains a comprehensive list of lactation rooms across campus. If you need assistance locating specific buildings, visit the Aggie Map. To find lactation rooms, click on “Layers” in the menu and select “Lactation Rooms.”
- Pre-Registration for Parenting Students: Students who are the parent or legal guardian of a child under 18 years of age are eligible for pre-registration. Students must complete the self-certify form (<https://studentlife.tamu.edu/support/rightsandresources/#register-parenting-student-registration-self-certification>) to be considered.

Professional School Advising

<http://opsa.tamu.edu>

- Preprofessional advising for Medical, Veterinary, Dental, Physical Therapy, Physician Assistant, Occupational Therapy, Pharmacy and Nursing careers.
- PreLaw Advising Services
- Preprofessional Student Organizations

Recreational Sports

<http://recsports.tamu.edu>

- All currently enrolled Texas A&M students (with some exceptions) are automatically Rec members. All you need is your student ID to utilize the Student Recreation Center, Polo Road Rec Center, Southside Rec Center, Penberthy Rec Sports Complex, and other Rec Sports facilities. Guest passes for visitors are available for purchase. Persons with disabilities are invited to contact Member Services to inquire about accommodations. We encourage individuals to download the Rec Sports app from the Apple App Store and Google Play.
- The Student Recreation Center is Texas A&M Rec Sports' flagship facility. With more than 500,000 square feet of recreation space, the facility offers a variety of areas including an extensive strength and conditioning room, indoor walking/jogging track, handball/racquetball courts, and indoor courts for soccer, basketball, volleyball, and badminton. It also offers an indoor rock climbing facility, bouldering wall, outdoor basketball and sand volleyball courts, dance/activity rooms, free day-use lockers, locker rooms, and a world-class natatorium featuring a dive pool, lap pool, instructional pool, and the Cain outdoor pool. Facilities may be used on a drop-in basis except when reserved for classes or university functions.
- The Southside Rec Center, located on Bizzell Street adjacent to the Texas A&M Golf Club and across from the Southside Residence Halls, is approximately 60,000 square feet of indoor recreational space with an additional 15,000 square feet of outdoor space. It features strength and conditioning areas, fitness room, multi-purpose courts, a bouldering wall, outdoor sand volleyball courts, a large outdoor turf area, free day-use lockers, and locker rooms.
- The Polo Road Rec Center, located on Polo Road near University Drive, is approximately 28,000 square feet with a large strength and conditioning space that includes an indoor turf area, a multipurpose room for group fitness classes, free day-use lockers, and locker rooms.
- The Penberthy Rec Sports Complex, located on both sides of George Bush Drive, features artificial turf playing fields, natural grass fields, softball fields, a covered pavilion, and equipment checkout.
- Rec Sports also offers aquatics classes, group exercise and specialty classes, boot camps, personal and small group training, intramural sports, sport clubs, and outdoor adventures.

Student Activities

<http://studentactivities.tamu.edu/> (<http://aggieserve.tamu.edu/>)

The Department of Student Activities fosters and supports leadership, learning, and involvement opportunities that enhance the growth and development of students and recognized student organizations. As members of the university community, we are committed to a philosophy of shared responsibility that develops leaders of character dedicated to serving the greater good, and we subscribe to the Texas A&M core values of Respect, Excellence, Leadership, Loyalty, Integrity, and Selfless Service. We are committed to helping Aggies develop in ways, both in and out of the classroom, preparing them for life beyond Aggieland. In doing so, Student Activities offers opportunities to lead, serve, participate in campus traditions, represent student voice, and make an impact at Texas A&M. The perks of getting involved on campus range from reaching leadership potential to networking with administrators and potential employers, to forming lasting friendships.

Student Assistance Services

<http://studentlife.tamu.edu>

Student Assistance Services (SAS) connects students with guidance, resources, and support for personal and academic matters. SAS serves as an initial point of contact for information on various topics. Common issues supported by Student Assistance Services include referrals, resource connections, food insecurity, crisis support including medical emergencies, behavior follow-up, student absence notifications, Silver Taps, student death, and transition-related concerns.

Student Conduct Office

<https://studentconduct.tamu.edu>

The Student Conduct Office encourages the development and well-being of all students. This is accomplished by promoting reflection, fostering accountability, and educating students and campus partners on individual rights and responsibilities within the university community.

The Student Conduct Office offers educational presentations and workshops, including the Ethics and Decision Making Workshop (<https://studentconduct.tamu.edu/edm/>) and hazing prevention and education programs (<https://studentconduct.tamu.edu/stophazing/>), in addition to responding to cases of alleged student rule violations and referring students to appropriate resources.

The staff in the Student Conduct Office are available for consultation on conflict resolution and student behavioral concerns. Staff are also available for presentations upon request.

Student Legal Services

<http://studentlife.tamu.edu>

Student Legal Services provides free legal advice and assistance to students. They cover various topics, including landlord/tenant disputes, criminal law, expunctions, automobile accidents, traffic tickets, and consumer protection. Additionally, notary services are available as well as mediation services to help students resolve conflicts.

Student Life

<http://studentlife.tamu.edu/>

Student Life strives to enhance your opportunities as a student to participate fully in the university experience. We do this by providing students with information, services, programs, and involvement opportunities that facilitate responsible life choices and promote awareness of themselves and their community. Each of the program areas within Student Life has a specific mission, but one common goal: to provide education, outreach, and support to you.

Specific services and programs offered include:

- Alcohol and Other Drug Education
- Graduate and Professional Student Government
- Interpersonal Violence Prevention
- New Student and Family Programs
- Off Campus Student Services
- Pregnant and Parenting Student Services
- Student Assistance Services
- Student Legal Services
- Student Media (The Battalion and #Aggieland#yearbook)

Student Media

<https://studentlife.tamu.edu/> (<http://studentlife.tamu.edu/studentmedia/>)

- Student Media produces national, award-winning publications: The Battalion, the Aggieland yearbook and the Maroon Life magazine. All three are written, edited and produced by students and offer excellent opportunities to gain valuable experience for journalistic and related careers.
- The Battalion, Texas A&M's student newspaper since 1893, typically is printed weekly on Thursdays during the fall and spring and every other week during the summer sessions. Around finals and holidays, the delivery days may be changed. It is distributed to students, faculty and staff on campus and at many apartments and other high traffic areas in College Station. The Battalion is also available online and on mobile devices at thebatt.com. (<http://www.thebatt.com/>)
- Aggieland, which dates back to 1895, is distributed in the fall but is a year-round project documenting school activities. It is one of the nation's largest college yearbooks.
- Maroon Life is published five times during the school year with New Students' Guide to Aggieland (distributed at New Student Conferences), Fall Sports Preview, Best of Aggieland (winter distribution), Spring Sports Preview and Housing Guide (Family Weekend) editions.

The Association of Former Students

www.AggieNetwork.com

For more than 145 years, The Association of Former Students has supported programs, provided resources and cultivated experiences for Texas A&M University and Texas Aggies. The Association strives to be the premier alumni association and is the oldest organization serving Texas A&M in support of the ever-growing Aggie Network. Part of our mission is promoting the welfare of Texas A&M and serving the student body.

In 2024, The Association provided $16.1 million in support and services to Texas A&M University and the Aggie Network, including $6.1 million in cash support for academic programs and scholarships, student activities and faculty, staff and student recognition, and another $10 million for engagement programs and facilities supporting current and former students.

Current student opportunities include:

- Aggie Ring Day – Multiple times a year, thousands of Aggies, family and friends gather at the Clayton W. Williams, Jr. Alumni Center to celebrate achieving an academic milestone by receiving their Aggie Rings.
- Howdy Week GatherRing – Join classmates at the Williams Alumni Center for free food and take part in the first official on-campus yell practice of the fall semester, with the Texas A&M yell leaders! tx.ag/GatherRing (<https://www.aggienetwork.com/events/gathering/>)
- 1879 Society Ambassadors – A cohort of student leaders dedicated to selflessly serving The Association and Texas A&M through fellowship and networking with fellow members of the Aggie Network, as well as building, perpetuating and sharing the Aggie Spirit. tx.ag/1879Ambassadors (<https://www.aggienetwork.com/studentambassadors/>)
- Student Employment – Explore a wide variety of student positions available at The Association of Former Students. tx.ag/AssociationJobs (<https://www.aggienetwork.com/theassociation/employment.aspx>)
- Aggie Park – Play games, study, listen to live music, catch a fish or just relax on this 20-acre space, which was funded through private donations raised by The Association. tx.ag/AggiePark (<https://aggiepark.tamu.edu/>)

Another pillar of The Association's mission is to strengthen the bonds that connect Aggies with each other and the university. Through generous gifts, The Association cultivates experiences for the Aggie Network by providing resources and supporting programs like Aggie Muster, A&M Clubs, Class activities, Constituent Networks, Traveling Aggies, Young Alumni, Reunions, Distinguished Alumni Gala, Find An Aggie and Texas Aggie magazine.

Transportation Services

Transit

The university operates an on- and off-campus transit system that can be used by anyone on campus, fare-free. The off-campus transit system serves most of the major apartment complexes and housing areas in College Station, as well as the Blinn College Campus and RELLIS Campus.

All transit services are included in student registration fees and do not require a bus pass, however, passengers are required to present their Texas A&M, Blinn, or Brazos Transit District (BTD) ID when boarding at off-campus stops. Members of the general public possessing a Brazos Transit District ID may ride both on- and off-campus bus routes. In addition, students may ride The District (<http://btd.org/>) buses fare-free by showing their IDs upon entering the bus. For BTD bus route information, visit <http://btd.org> (<http://btd.org/>).

For updates about transit routes, subscribe to the RSS feed at <https://transport.tamu.edu/about/rss.aspx> or follow @aggiespiritbus (<http://twitter.com/aggiespiritbus/>) on X. For transit information, including maps and leave times, visit <https://transport.tamu.edu/transit.aspx>.

Parking

Those who choose to bring a vehicle to campus are required to purchase a parking assignment (virtual permit) or pay-by-the-hour to park in designated visitor areas. (Download the Parkmobile app, available on the AppStore, Google Play, or Windows Store, or those without a smartphone may use the mobile web app at <https://parkmobile.io/>.) See also Optional Campus Services (<https://catalog.tamu.edu/graduate/tuition-fees-financial-information/optional-campus-services/>).

Parking is at a premium on Texas A&M's campus; MOST customers are not assigned their first choice for parking. Often the available parking may not be immediately adjacent to your building or facility. Students may register for parking at <https://transport.tamu.edu/parking/faqpermit.aspx> (<http://transport.tamu.edu/parking/faqpermit.aspx>) or sign up for the wait lists at <http://transport.tamu.edu/account> (<http://transport.tamu.edu/account/>). To get the best parking available, register online by the July 7 priority deadline.

For updates about parking, traffic, and construction, subscribe to the RSS feeds at <https://transport.tamu.edu/about/rss.aspx> (<http://transport.tamu.edu/about/rss.aspx>) or follow @aggieparking (<http://twitter.com/aggieparking/>) on X or @TAMUTransportation (https://en-gb.facebook.com/tamustransportation/?ref=page_internal) on Facebook and Instagram.

For more information about parking or to view Parking Rules and Regulations, visit <http://transport.tamu.edu/parkingreg> (<http://transport.tamu.edu/parkingreg/>).

Bicycles

Bicycles are a great way to get to, from, and around campus. Bike services include the bike share program, bike lease program, borrow-a-bike, bike registration, summer bike storage, and maintenance stations.

For more information visit <http://transport.tamu.edu/bicycles> (<http://transport.tamu.edu/bicycles/>).

Alternatives

Don't have a car? There are plenty of alternatives, including carshare, rideshare, and break/weekend shuttles to major Texas cities. For more alternative transportation options, visit <http://transport.tamu.edu/alternative> (<http://transport.tamu.edu/alternative/>).
