

HISPANIC STUDIES FOR COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT - MINOR

The minor in Hispanic Studies for Community Engagement offers students the opportunity to combine advanced Spanish language skills and Hispanic cultural knowledge with a service-learning experience. This minor complements degrees from other disciplines as it can incorporate courses taught in English that address multiple themes from throughout the Hispanic world. Coursework for this minor consists of 18 hours: 6 hours of 300- to 400-level Spanish courses; 9 hours of relevant courses in Anthropology, English, Hispanic Studies, History, Philosophy, Political Science, or Sociology; and 3 credit hours of service-learning experience with an organization or institution whose primary focus is providing services to Hispanic or Spanish-speaking communities. Of the total required hours, at least 9 must be taken in residence at Texas A&M.
